PHYSICAL FITNESS AWARDS NOMINATIONS

The South Carolina Governor's Council on Physical Fitness will hold its 11th annual awards presentation during the Auburn/USC game at halftime on Thursday, September 28, 2006 to honor outstanding leaders in the field of physical activity. The Governor's Council aims to promote health by increasing levels of physical activity, and would like to commend those also committed to this important mission. To submit a nomination in one or more of the categories, visit www.scdhec.gov/gcpf or call Jay Daniels at 803-545-4486. Awards are presented in the following categories:

- The Community Award
recognizes an organization or group which encourages and promotes physical activity in the community.
- The School Award
is given to a school which encourages and promotes physical activity among teachers, staff, and students.
- The Worksite Award
recognizes a business which encourages and promotes employee physical activity.
- The Individual Award is given to a person who exemplifies a physically active lifestyle.
- The Faith-Based Award
is presented to a church, synagogue, mosque, or other religious organization or affiliated group which encourages and promotes physical activity among members.
- The Public Policy Award
is presented to a local, state, or national policy maker or group of policy makers who support physical activity through changes in public policy.
- The Media Award
is presented to a newspaper, television station, radio station, or to an individual reporter, for outstanding physical coverage of physical activity.

Nomination forms are due by Friday, September 8, 2006.
